One of the clerks in the Southern Pacific freight office narrowly escaped being shot yesterday afternoon while at work at his desk in the office. A number of boys had been in the habit of going down in the brush near the freight office on the bank of the Weber river to shoot birds.

Yesterday afternoon they were engaged in their sport, and one of the boys, who was named Grant, was in the habit of going down in the brush near the freight office on the bank of the Weber river to shoot birds.

William G. Hobson has sought advice from two of the best known criminal lawyers of the city, concerning the serious charge which he will have to face, that of murdering James Lynch in a bar on the night of Nov. 1. He sent for the attorneys yesterday afternoon and consulted with them at length on the way in which his case will be fought. He proposes to secure his freedom by proving that he murdered Lynch in self defense. It is not believed that he will be able to produce any testimony on this point other than his own.

Hobson was taken to Brigham City yesterday afternoon for preliminary hearing, but before being taken before the judge it was decided to have him come over the road and point out the place where he shot and killed Lynch. Accordingly he went with Sheriff Joseph and County Attorney Perry and pointed out the spot, which is a short distance over the line into Cache county. The officer therefore brought him back to Ogden and turned him over to Sheriff Bailey, who notified Sheriff Rigby of Cache county, who will come to Ogden and get the prisoner, and take him to Logan to be tried on the charge.

ARRESTED FOR BOARD BILL.

Grant had been notified that he must not permit any more plays at the Grand Opera House on Sunday night. Immediately after the play, Mr. Grant was arrested by Chief of Police Egan and Captain Brown, and ordered to appear at municipal court this morning at 10 o'clock to answer to the charge of violating the city ordinance regulating Sunday theater performances. The other two shows, "The Heart of Chicago" and "The Heart of Chicago," were not open their doors last evening, having also been notified that they must not permit any more performance last Sunday night. There is a law governing Sunday amusements as well as the city ordinance, and the city authorities should close up the theaters and other places on Sunday.

LEAVITT, CANADA.
GOOD GRAIN CROPS.
Beet Growing Handicapped With Too Long a Haul.

Special Correspondence.
Leavitt, Alberta, Canada, Nov. 12.—This place is located about half way between Cardston and Mountain View, and was originally designated as Buffalo flat. It is eight miles to Cardston, our nearest railroad station, and has a good weekly mail service. The grain crops here are fairly good and are bringing good prices. The experiment of raising beets for the sugar factory was made this season, but the eight mile haul to the factory at Raymond is too much of a handicap. The farmers here are raising the sugar beets of the desired quality, but cannot afford to haul them by team.

We have here a neat meetinghouse that is surrounded by a substantial wooden fence.

The people have just completed the wood hauling from the meetinghouse, which will provide sufficient fuel for the next two years. Last night an entertainment and dance were given to the wood haulers. It was a most enjoyable affair. The unity and public spirit of the people here is commendable.

CARDSTON, CANADA.
DELIGHTFUL CONCERT TOUR.
Visit of H. S. Goddard Much Appreciated in Alberta.

Special Correspondence.
Cardston, Alberta, Canada, Nov. 5.—We appreciate so highly the visit of H. S. Goddard, that we feel that the readers of the "News" would be interested to know what he did for us in a musical way while here. We had written to him to pay us a visit on his way home telling him he had so many friends here that we could guarantee him no loss money by returning home this way. He answered that he would be very much to see Canada and aside from any pecuniary conditions he would do so if we felt he could do us good. Knowing of his vocal ability and of his London successes, we prepared for his coming. He arrived in our colony, Oct. 31, and gave concert at our local hall, and was very successful. He was here for seven days, and also in Lethbridge, a very prosperous city of about 4,000 people, just a few miles from Raymond. Our old friend, B. S. Young, and our talented accompanist, Miss Agnes Stannard, made up the supporting talent, and we are pleased to state that entertainment has given so much satisfaction, especially among our many educated friends who live in our midst.

Not a few have complimented us on the talent they had never heard of among the "Mountain" people, and suggested that a visit from Mr. Goddard through eastern Canada would do much more to benefit our people than any amount of preaching. Immediately at the close of the recital in Lethbridge the best citizens here met him and offered him a guarantee if he would stay two more nights, but having arranged to leave the next morning, he could only thank them for their appreciation. Our choristers and choir members feel very grateful for the many invaluable pointers they gleaned from the very practicable talks Mr. Goddard gave them.

Another reason for our people appreciating this visit is the spirit which was manifest. We want to assure Elder Goddard that we thank him the more for visiting our Sunday schools, singing to the children, and then in the improvement meetings and our regular Sunday services; in all of the meetings he sang the songs his beloved father used to sing and brought tears to all our eyes. We will await with feelings of the greatest pleasure another visit to the children, and then in the improvement meetings and our regular Sunday services; in all of the meetings he sang the songs his beloved father used to sing and brought tears to all our eyes.
